

The Romans Road

1st Stop: Romans 3:23 | The Problem

“For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God”

All men and women are sinners when measured against the standard of a holy God. God created us to know Him and live in a relationship with Him. But the Bible tells us that all of us have sinned and fall short of God’s standard. That includes me and it includes you. None of us naturally live the way God designed us to.

2nd Stop: Romans 6:23 | The Consequence

“For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

The Bible says that the wages of sin is death. Sin separates us from God and ultimately leads to spiritual death. Just like wages are what we earn for our work, death is the consequence that our sin earns before a holy God. But the verse doesn’t stop there. It says the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

3rd Stop: Romans 5:8 | The Solution

“But God demonstrates His own love for us in this; While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.”

What’s amazing is that God didn’t leave us in that condition. While we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Jesus willingly took the punishment our sin deserved by dying on the cross in our place. Through His sacrifice, God made a way for our sins to be forgiven and for our broken relationship with Him to be restored.

4th Stop: Romans 10:9-10 | The Response

“If you declare with your mouth, “Jesus is Lord,” and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you profess your faith and are saved.”

The Bible says that if we confess with our mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in our heart that God raised Him from the dead, we will be saved. In other words, we turn to Christ in faith, trusting Him as Savior and Lord. It’s not about earning God’s favor, but about personally placing our trust in what Jesus has done for us.

5th Stop: Romans 10:13 | The Assurance

“Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.”

The promise is simple and clear: Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. Anyone who sincerely turns to Christ in faith will be received and forgiven by God. He promises eternal life and a restored relationship with Him to all who come to Him through Jesus.
