

OPEN-BOOK REVIEW

Jesus Proves God Is Not Detached From the Effects of Evil

Final ThinkCube | Why Does God Allow Evil?

Name: _____ Date: _____

Use the ThinkCube article and Bible passages to complete this review. Circle the best answer for each multiple-choice question, then write your responses in your own words.

PREMISE 1 | Jesus Entered a World of Evil

1. Why does Jesus leaving heaven matter to the question of evil?

- A. He willingly entered a fallen world to rescue humanity
- B. He was unaware of the suffering ahead
- C. He came only to observe human behavior
- D. He avoided all human hardship

2. Which experience is specifically described in the ThinkCube article?

- A. Jesus held political office
- B. Jesus was betrayed and abandoned by close followers
- C. Jesus lived in a palace
- D. Jesus escaped all opposition

3. Why is Isaiah 53:3 significant to the article?

- A. It says evil is imaginary
- B. It predicts a life without hardship
- C. It describes the Suffering Servant as acquainted with grief
- D. It teaches that suffering ends before death

4. What did Jesus pray concerning His executioners?

- A. That they would become wealthy
- B. That they would be forgotten
- C. That they would never be judged
- D. That the Father would forgive them

PREMISE 2 | Jesus Sympathizes With Our Pain

5. According to Matthew 9:35-36, how did Jesus respond to distressed crowds?

- A. With compassion
- B. With contempt
- C. With indifference
- D. With fear

6. What does Jesus healing people with leprosy demonstrate?

- A. That disease is always punishment
- B. Concern for both physical suffering and social exclusion
- C. That only the powerful deserve help
- D. That compassion requires avoiding contact

7. What did Jesus do when Mary and Martha grieved Lazarus?

- A. He ignored their pain
- B. He rebuked them for sadness
- C. He wept and then raised Lazarus
- D. He refused to visit them

8. How does Hebrews 2:17-18 portray Jesus?

- A. As unable to understand temptation
- B. As indifferent to human trials
- C. As removed from humanity
- D. As a merciful High Priest able to help sufferers

PREMISE 3 | The Cross Confronts Evil and Pays for Sin

9. What made Jesus' trial and execution an especially profound injustice?

- A. He was innocent yet condemned through betrayal and false accusations
- B. He confessed to violent crimes
- C. He avoided public humiliation
- D. He was sentenced for overthrowing Rome

10. What was Roman scourging intended to inflict?

- A. Only a symbolic warning
- B. Severe pain and physical injury
- C. A brief period of isolation
- D. No lasting physical damage

11. How does Isaiah 53 connect to Jesus' death in the article?

- A. It describes a victorious earthly army
- B. It rejects the possibility of redemption
- C. It portrays the servant suffering for others' transgressions
- D. It states that the servant never dies

12. What central claim does the cross make about God and evil?

- A. God approves of injustice
- B. Evil has no consequences
- C. Human suffering is always deserved
- D. God willingly entered suffering to accomplish redemption

WRITTEN REFLECTION

Answer thoughtfully using the article, Scripture, and your own observations.

1. Explain why Jesus willingly entering a world filled with evil challenges the claim that God is detached from suffering.

2. Choose two forms of suffering Jesus experienced. How might these help a believer explain His understanding of human pain?

3. Describe two occasions when Jesus actively relieved the suffering of others. What do they reveal about His character?

4. Why does the article describe Jesus' arrest, trial, scourging, and crucifixion as a profound example of human injustice?

5. How does the cross demonstrate both God's opposition to evil and His love for sinners?

MEMORY VERSE & PERSONAL TAKEAWAY

Memory Verse — Hebrews 2:18

Read Hebrews 2:18 in your Bible. Write the verse below, then explain how it supports this ThinkCube's central argument.

PERSONAL TAKEAWAY

In two or three sentences, summarize a response you could give to someone who says, "If God cared about evil, He would not remain distant from our suffering."

KEY TRUTH

In Jesus Christ, God did not remain distant from evil. He entered our broken world, showed compassion to the suffering, and willingly endured the cross to redeem sinners.

INSTRUCTOR ANSWER KEY

Multiple-choice answers

PREMISE 1 | Jesus Entered a World of Evil

1. A — He willingly entered a fallen world to rescue humanity
2. B — Jesus was betrayed and abandoned by close followers
3. C — It describes the Suffering Servant as acquainted with grief
4. D — That the Father would forgive them

PREMISE 2 | Jesus Sympathizes With Our Pain

5. A — With compassion
6. B — Concern for both physical suffering and social exclusion
7. C — He wept and then raised Lazarus
8. D — As a merciful High Priest able to help sufferers

PREMISE 3 | The Cross Confronts Evil and Pays for Sin

9. A — He was innocent yet condemned through betrayal and false accusations
10. B — Severe pain and physical injury
11. C — It portrays the servant suffering for others' transgressions
12. D — God willingly entered suffering to accomplish redemption

Reflection guidance

Look for accurate connections to the three premises: the voluntary incarnation and suffering of Jesus; His practical compassion toward victims of suffering; and His innocent, sacrificial death as the ultimate response to sin and evil. Written answers may vary.

Source: thinkcube.info/evil-5-jesus-proves-that-god-is-not-detached/