

OPEN-BOOK REVIEW

Final ThinkCube: Jesus Is Not Indifferent to Our Suffering

Name: _____ Date: _____

Instructions: Read the Final ThinkCube, “Jesus Is Not Indifferent to Our Suffering.” Use the article and its Scripture references to answer each question. Circle the best answer, then complete the written reflections. This is a learning exercise, not a closed-book test.

Premise 1 — Jesus Is No Stranger to Suffering

1. What is the article’s central response to the claim that God is indifferent to suffering?

- A. God promises to remove every hardship immediately.
- B. Jesus entered human suffering personally and willingly.
- C. Only people without faith experience suffering.
- D. The Bible never discusses suffering.

2. Which passage describes the suffering servant as despised, rejected, and acquainted with grief?

- A. Genesis 1
- B. Psalm 23
- C. Isaiah 53:3–5
- D. Revelation 12

3. Which is NOT one of the categories of Jesus’ suffering discussed in the article?

- A. Emotional and relational
- B. Social and psychological
- C. Physical and spiritual
- D. Financial success and luxury

4. What is the significance of Jesus’ suffering on the cross?

- A. It demonstrates both His identification with suffering and His redemptive sacrifice.
- B. It proves that God is powerless.
- C. It shows that all human suffering is deserved.
- D. It means believers will never experience pain.

OPEN-BOOK REVIEW — CONTINUED

Premise 2 — Jesus Experienced Severe Social Injustice

5. Which of the following injustices did Jesus experience?

- A. False accusations, public humiliation, and an unjust sentence.
- B. A fair trial and unanimous acquittal.
- C. Protection from all political pressure.
- D. Exemption from Roman punishment.

6. Why did Pilate ultimately hand Jesus over to be crucified, according to the article?

- A. He discovered clear evidence of a violent crime.
- B. He yielded to pressure from the crowd despite recognizing Jesus' innocence.
- C. Jesus requested execution.
- D. The disciples voted for His death.

7. What is the main point of comparing Jesus' suffering with modern experiences of injustice?

- A. Every injustice has identical circumstances.
- B. The Gospel discourages concern for victims.
- C. Jesus personally understands humiliation, abuse, and wrongful treatment.
- D. Christians should avoid discussing social injustice.

8. Which figure is quoted in the article with the phrase "Only the suffering God can help"?

- A. Dietrich Bonhoeffer
- B. Isaac Newton
- C. C. S. Lewis
- D. Augustine

OPEN-BOOK REVIEW — CONTINUED

Premise 3 — Jesus Endured Emotional and Relational Pain

9. Which experience of Jesus illustrates betrayal by a close companion?

- A. His baptism in the Jordan.
- B. Judas betraying Him with a kiss.
- C. His teaching on the hillside.
- D. The feeding of the five thousand.

10. What did Jesus' disciples do when He was arrested?

- A. They immediately overthrew the Roman government.
- B. They publicly defended Him throughout the trial.
- C. They fled and abandoned Him.
- D. They remained beside Him at every moment.

11. What comfort does the article draw from Jesus' experience of rejection?

- A. He cannot understand modern loneliness.
- B. His followers will never be rejected.
- C. Human relationships are unimportant.
- D. He understands betrayal, abandonment, and grief from personal experience.

Premise 4 — Christ's Suffering Was Foreknown and Willingly Accepted

12. According to Acts 2:22–23, how does Peter describe Jesus' death?

- A. An accident that surprised God.
- B. Part of God's definite plan and foreknowledge, carried out by lawless men.
- C. A failure of prophecy.
- D. A punishment for Jesus' own wrongdoing.

OPEN-BOOK REVIEW — CONTINUED

Written Reflections — Explore and Explain

13. Using Isaiah 53:3–5, identify three kinds of suffering Jesus experienced and explain why they matter when someone asks whether God cares.

14. Choose two injustices Jesus experienced during His arrest and trial. Explain how His experience can help you respond compassionately to someone who has been treated unfairly.

15. How might you respond to someone who says, “God cannot understand the betrayal and loneliness I have experienced”? Refer to one Gospel example.

OPEN-BOOK REVIEW — CONTINUED

Be Prepared to Share

16. Explain how Isaiah 53 and Acts 2:22–23 support the article’s claim that Jesus knowingly and willingly entered suffering as part of God’s redemptive plan.

17. Memory Verse: Choose Isaiah 53:3–5, Hebrews 4:15, Romans 5:8, or Acts 2:23. Write the reference and summarize its message in your own words.

Personal Takeaway

. What one truth from this final ThinkCube would you want to remember when speaking with a person who is suffering?

OPEN-BOOK REVIEW — CONTINUED

Answer Key & Discussion Guide

Multiple choice: 1. B 2. C 3. D 4. A 5. A 6. B

7. C 8. A 9. B 10. C 11. D 12. B

Suggested Responses for Written Reflections

13. Isaiah 53 describes rejection and grief, physical affliction, and suffering for others. These demonstrate that Jesus is personally acquainted with human pain.

14. Jesus faced false witnesses, political pressure, public mockery, and unjust condemnation. His example helps believers acknowledge injustice and offer compassionate support.

15. Judas betrayed Jesus, Peter denied Him, and His disciples fled. The Gospels portray a Savior who understands rejection and abandonment.

16. Isaiah 53 portrays the suffering servant; Acts 2:23 describes Jesus' death as within God's foreknowledge and plan. The article argues His suffering was willingly embraced for redemption.

17. Answers vary. Look for a faithful summary of the selected passage.

Core Truth to Remember

The cross does not answer every philosophical question about suffering, but it shows that God is not indifferent: Jesus willingly entered human pain, injustice, rejection, and death to accomplish redemption.

Source reading: <https://thinkcube.info/final-thoughts-why-would-a-good-god-allow-suffering/>