

FINAL THOUGHTS: WHAT ABOUT THOSE WHO HAVEN'T HEARD?

FINAL CUBE | OPEN-BOOK REVIEW

Name: _____ Date: _____

Instructions: Read the Final Thoughts ThinkCube carefully. Use the article and Scripture to answer the questions. Circle one answer for each multiple-choice question and complete the written reflections.

PREMISE 1: NATURE AND CONSCIENCE PREPARE US TO SEEK GOD

1. What does nature reveal about God, according to Romans 1:20?

- A. His eternal power and divine nature
- B. The full details of the gospel
- C. That people never do wrong
- D. The date of Christ's return

2. What is the inward witness described in Romans 2:14-15?

- A. Human imagination
- B. The human conscience
- C. Political authority
- D. Religious ceremonies

3. What is the proper relationship between general revelation and salvation?

- A. Creation and conscience automatically save
- B. Only conscience can forgive sins
- C. They can awaken a desire to seek God, but do not themselves save
- D. They make the gospel unnecessary

PREMISE 2: GOD REWARDS THOSE WHO SINCERELY SEEK HIM

4. According to Hebrews 11:6, what must a person believe?

- A. God exists and rewards those who seek Him
- B. All religions teach identical doctrines
- C. Good deeds can earn salvation
- D. God cannot be known

5. What distinguishes sincere seeking from constructing a god of our own making?

- A. Rejecting all questions
- B. Demanding that God fit our preferences
- C. Seeking God humbly as He truly is
- D. Choosing whichever beliefs are easiest

6. What does the lesson say about further revelation to sincere seekers?

- A. God is unable to reach remote places
- B. God may provide further truth through means He chooses
- C. Everyone receives exactly the same dream
- D. Missionaries and Scripture are unnecessary

PREMISE 3: GOD CAN REVEAL TRUTH THROUGH EXTRAORDINARY MEANS

7. Whom did God direct through a vision to send for Peter in Acts 10?

- A. Pharaoh
- B. Cornelius
- C. Pilate
- D. Abimelech

8. What was the result of Cornelius receiving a vision?

- A. He no longer needed the gospel
- B. He immediately wrote the New Testament
- C. He sent for Peter and heard the gospel of Jesus
- D. He became king of Israel

9. Which example involves God warning a ruler through a dream?

- A. Abimelech in Genesis 20
- B. Moses at the Red Sea
- C. David and Goliath
- D. Stephen before the council

10. What do biblical dreams and visions demonstrate in this lesson?

- A. Every dream is from God
- B. Extraordinary revelation replaces Scripture
- C. God cannot reach people without missionaries
- D. God is not limited by geography or human barriers

PART TWO | WRITTEN REFLECTIONS

1. How do nature and conscience work together to point people toward God?

2. Why does the lesson distinguish general revelation from saving knowledge of Jesus Christ?

3. What does Hebrews 11:6 teach about the attitude of someone who sincerely seeks God?

PART TWO | WRITTEN REFLECTIONS (CONTINUED)

4. Explain how the account of Cornelius illustrates God providing further revelation.

5. How would you answer someone who argues that God cannot reach people who have never heard the gospel?

PART THREE | SCRIPTURE MEMORY

Hebrews 11:6 (ESV) - Read this verse in your Bible. Write a key phrase below that describes the person who seeks God and what God promises.

PERSONAL TAKEAWAY

In one or two sentences, explain why Christians can trust God to deal justly with people who have never heard the gospel.

INSTRUCTOR ANSWER KEY

FINAL CUBE | WHAT ABOUT THOSE WHO HAVEN'T HEARD?

PREMISE 1: NATURE AND CONSCIENCE PREPARE US TO SEEK GOD

1. A - His eternal power and divine nature
2. B - The human conscience
3. C - They awaken seeking but do not themselves save

PREMISE 2: GOD REWARDS SINCERE SEEKERS

4. A - God exists and rewards those who seek Him
5. C - Seeking God humbly as He truly is
6. B - God may provide further truth through means He chooses

PREMISE 3: GOD REVEALS TRUTH THROUGH EXTRAORDINARY MEANS

7. B - Cornelius
8. C - He sent for Peter and heard the gospel
9. A - Abimelech in Genesis 20
10. D - God is not limited by geography or human barriers

REFLECTION GUIDANCE

1. Nature reveals God's power and nature; conscience witnesses to moral accountability.
2. General revelation does not communicate the saving work of Christ in full.
3. Seekers must believe God exists and pursue Him humbly and sincerely.
4. Cornelius received direction to hear Peter proclaim Christ (Acts 10).
5. God knows every person and can provide truth through ordinary or extraordinary means.

Scripture memory: Hebrews 11:6 (ESV). Check wording against the Bible. Personal takeaway: Answers vary.